Part 2

2 — Alberta is the first province to let pharmacists prescribe for minor ailments (2007)

3 — September 30 becomes the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation (2021)

1 — MPs begin electing the Speaker of the House by secret ballot (1986)

4 — RCMP officers begin wearing body cameras across Canada (2024)

5 — Ontario guarantees app-based delivery workers minimum wage for each delivery (2025)

Part 3

Judges, councillors and MPs all have rules about conflicts of interest. Why do people in these jobs need such rules?

A good answer mentions: Their decisions affect other people's rights, money or safety; people must be able to trust that decisions are fair and not made for personal gain; examples: a judge steps aside when there is a family link, a councillor declares a conflict and does not vote, an MP does not vote on a matter in which they have a private interest.
